

CONTROLLED ENVIRONMENT Agriculture

TUESDAY
June
11
2024

1:00 pm - 4:30 pm

DoubleTree Hilton Hotel SeaWorld
10100 International Dr., Orlando, FL

Registration

- UF IST# 32340: IST will be held in conjunction with the Florida State Horticultural Society annual meeting
- Must register as a FSHS meeting attendee www.fshs.org and on PDEC pdec.ifas.ufl.edu. This training will begin immediately following the Extension Luncheon. The luncheon requires registration and is a ticketed event.
- Travel funding is provided by the office of Dean for Extension and limited to the first 18 registered agents. County agents and statewide Extension specialists are encouraged to find funding to attend FSHS. To receive account numbers for reimbursement or any questions, please contact Tripti Vashisth at tvashisth@ufl.edu or 863-956-8846

Certified Crop Advisor CEUs will be requested.

Topics and Speakers

Welcome and Introduction.

Dr. Tripti Vashisth

What is CEA? Where we are as CEA UF/IFAS? Available resources for educating growers and stakeholders.

Dr. Germán Sandoya

Small scale systems/ Urban Agriculture.

Ms. Hannah Wooten

Start up -do and don'ts and points of concerns.

Mr. Robert Hochmuth

CEA systems and engineering innovations.

Dr. Ying Zhang

Production of leafy greens in CEA.

Dr. Germán Sandoya

Cultivating Controlled Environment Agriculture at UF/IFAS: Challenges and Opportunities.

Dr. Kirsten Pelz-Stelinski

Future directions and agents' perspective.

Ms. Hannah Wooten